

Table of Contents

Presentation (by Stefano Camerlengo)	9
Foreword (by Leonardo Sileo)	11
Preface	13
Abbreviations	14
Introduction to the Original Italian Publication of 1983	15
Sources	19
Special Bibliography	25
Books	25
Periodicals	25
Bibliography	27

Part I • TOWARDS THE MISSION

Chapter I – A New Institute and a New Mission	31
The Dawn of the Consolata Missions Institute	31
Formation of Those Leaving for the Missions	38
The Departure and the Journey to Tuthu	39
Chapter II – Geographical, Religious, Socio-political Environment	45
Kenya	45
The Ethnic Groups of Kenya	48
Political Leadership in the Mount Kenya Region	49
The Kikuyu	53
The Colonization of the Kikuyu Land	56
Relationships between Government and Missions	63
The Issue of the Land	69
Protestant and Catholic Missionary Presence	72

Part II • BEGINNING OF THE MISSION STATIONS AND EVERYDAY LIFE

Chapter III – The Mission of Tuthu and the Sawmill of Gathunguri	81
The Beginnings	81
The Sawmill in the Forest	86
Threat of a Failure	89
The Abandonment of Tuthu	93
The Return to Tuthu	99

Chapter IV – The Missions of Murang’a and Limuru	111
The Start of the Murang’a Mission	111
Painful Moments	117
Apostolic Work	119
Pastoral Visit	121
Starting of the Limuru Mission	123
New Arrivals	126
Chapter V – The Missions of Nyeri and Wambugu	143
The Foundation of Nyeri (Tetu; Murang’a-ini)	143
The Mathari Farm	151
Wambugu Mission: Niagaytwa – Kiirongi in Gikondi	155
Chapter VI – The Missions of Metumi, Karima and Mugoiri	167
Metumi Mission: Rurii or Gaichanjiru	167
Karima Mission	179
Mugoiri Mission	182
Chapter VII – The “Independent Mission”	189
Fr. F. Perlo, Superior	189
The “Province of Kenya” Becomes an Independent Mission	190
Part III • MISSIONARIES AND KIKUYU CONFRONTING EACH OTHER
Chapter VIII – Mutual Relationships	199
Basic Attitudes	199
The Strike	204
Other Signs of Discomfort	209
An Ugly Page in the History of the Missions in Kenya	213
Chapter IX – Comparison with the Religious-cultural World	221
The Supreme Being	221
Ngoma (Devil – Spirits)	222
Sacrifices	223
The Action of the Mundu Mugo in the Sacrifices	224
Death	230
Initiation	231
Dance	234
Part IV • MISSIONARY METHODOLOGY
Chapter X – The Annual Missionary Conferences	243
Murang’a 1904	243
Choice of a Method	247
Other Provisions	249
Murang’a 1905	251

Chapter XI – Environmental Formation	255
Manual Work	255
Caring for the Sick	260
The Visits to the Villages: The Decisions of Murang’a	268
The Visits in Murang’a	270
The Visits in Tuthu	273
The Visits in Limuru	275
The Visits in Nyeri	277
The Visits in Metumi and Karima	279
The Visits in Wambugu	282
Learning the Language	284
A New Mentality Is Born	287
Some Difficulties	290
Chapter XII – The Schools	295
Perception of the Problem in Murang’a	295
The Tuthu School	297
Other Initiatives	304
Chapter XIII – Catechesis and the Pastoral	311
“Selection and First Formation of the Catechists”	311
The College of the Catechists	314
The Catechists’ Activity	318
Increment of the College of Catechists	323
Chapter XIV – Catechism	327
The First Manuals	327
Pedagogical Means and Method	332
Singing	333
Occasional Facts	333
Religious Teaching	336
The Father	336
Religious Ideas of the Kikuyu and Catechism of the Missionaries	341
The Devil	353
Moral Life	353
Baptismal Catechesis	357
The First Solemn Baptism	364
Chapter XV – The Sunday Oratory	367
The Day of the Lord	367
The Oratory	368
Conclusion	375
Appendix – Missionaries Who Set off for Kenya (1902-1905)	385
Index of Names	387