
Abstract

L'articolo analizza approfonditamente le procedure operative del Dicastero per la Dottrina della Fede, in particolare la gestione dei delicta reservata. Delinea il suo modus operandi, descrivendo il ruolo di Sessione Plenaria, Ordinaria, Collegio, Congresso e Consulta. Si concentra poi sull'evoluzione delle competenze della Sessione Ordinaria dal 2001 e del Collegio per l'esame degli appelli, approfondendone composizione, competenze e metodi. L'analisi si conclude con una sintesi dei processi del Dicastero volti a garantire l'integrità dottrinale e ad affrontare i reati canonici gravi.

The Competent Authority for Examining Appeals Pursuant to Article 24 SST 2021

The article provides an in-depth analysis of the operational procedures of the Dicastery for the Doctrine of the Faith, focusing particularly on its management of delicta reservata. It outlines the Dicastery's modus operandi, describing the roles of the Plenary Session, Ordinary Session, College, Congress, and Consulta. The study then concentrates on the evolution of the competencies of the Ordinary Session since 2001 and the College for the examination of appeals, detailing their composition, responsibilities, and methods. The analysis concludes with a summary of the Dicastery's key processes.

The analysis concludes by summarizing the key aspects of the Dicastery's processes for ensuring doctrinal integrity and addressing serious canonical offenses.

Keywords: Dicastery for the Doctrine of the Faith; Commission for the Examination of Appeals; Appeals ex art. 24 SST 2021; delicta reservata