

TABLE OF CONTENTS

| | | |
|----------------------------|---|----|
| Acknowledgements | » | 5 |
| Abbreviations | » | 7 |
| Table of Contents | » | 9 |
| General Introduction | » | 17 |

PART ONE

REVELATION AS “SELF-COMMUNICATION OF GOD” IN VATICAN II: AN ANALYSIS OF THE THEOLOGICAL INFLUENCE OF KARL BARTH AND KARL RAHNER

CHAPTER ONE

HISTORICAL BACKGROUND OF THE CONCEPT “SELF-COMMUNICATION OF GOD” IN DEI VERBUM

| | | |
|--|---|----|
| Introduction | » | 27 |
| 1. The Meaning of Revelation as “Self-Communication of God” | » | 30 |
| 1.1. Revelation in Dei Verbum | » | 30 |
| 1.2. Divine Self-Communication and Salvation | » | 34 |
| 2. The Preparations of the Document on Revelation | » | 36 |
| 2.1 The Preparatory Theological Commission (TC)..... | » | 36 |
| 2.2. The Task of the TC..... | » | 37 |
| 2.3. Rahner’s Involvement Before the Council Began | » | 40 |
| 2.3.1. Karl Rahner as a Theologian of the German Speaking Bishops | » | 40 |
| 2.3.2. Rahner’s Critique: Brevis disquisitio on De fontibus | » | 42 |
| 2.3.3. Rahner’s Critique of De deposito fidei pure custodiendo .. | » | 44 |
| 2.4. P. Smulders’ Observationes | » | 47 |
| 2.5. E. Schillebeeckx’ Commentary | » | 50 |
| 3. Two Approaches Towards the Schemata | » | 51 |
| 3.1. Discussion of De fontibus in the Conciliar Hall: The Focus | » | 52 |
| 3.2. The Defenders of the Schema | » | 52 |
| 3.3. The Opposition to the Schema | » | 53 |
| 3.3.1. The German Approach | » | 54 |
| 3.3.2. Contribution of the Indonesian Bishops | » | 54 |
| 3.3.3. The French Approach | » | 56 |

| | |
|---|------|
| 4. A Decisive Moment | » 59 |
| 4.1. Discussion on Chapter One on 21 November..... | » 59 |
| 4.2. Emergence of the Focus | » 61 |
| 4.3. The Work of the Mixed Commission: The Turning Point | » 62 |
| 4.3.1. The Preface of the Mixed Commission | » 62 |
| 4.3.2. Bishop Garrone’s Prooemium | » 63 |
| 4.3.3. Critique of Garrone’s Prooemium..... | » 65 |
| 4.3.4. S. Tromp’s Observations | » 65 |
| 4.3.5. The Emergence of Revelation as “Self-Communication of God” | » 66 |
| 4.3.6. Criticism of the Work of Mixed Commission | » 69 |
| 5. Transition of Papacy and Silent Listening..... | » 70 |
| 6. The Third Text: Textus emendatus | » 71 |
| 6.1. The Theology of the Manuals..... | » 72 |
| 6.1.1. Sebastian Tromp’s Theology of Revelation | » 74 |
| 6.1.2. Pietro Parente’s Understanding of Revelation | » 75 |
| 6.2. Karl Barth’s Influence on the Formation of the Third Draft | » 79 |
| 6.2.1. Karl Barth on the Word of God | » 79 |
| 6.2.2. Karl Barth and Vatican I | » 83 |
| 6.2.3. The Analogia entis | » 84 |
| 6.3. Karl Rahner’s Influence on the Third Draft | » 88 |
| 6.3.1. Karl Rahner’s Influence on the Insertion of Divine Self-Communication | » 88 |
| 6.3.2. Rahner’s Understanding of Revelation as Divine Self-Communication | » 89 |
| 7. Aspects of the Revelation According to the Third Draft..... | » 92 |
| 7.1. The Trinitarian Aspect of Revelation..... | » 93 |
| 7.2. Historical Aspect of Revelation: Self-Communication in Deeds and Words..... | » 94 |
| 7.3. Jesus Christ, the Fullness of Revelation..... | » 95 |
| 8. Textus denuo emendatus | » 96 |
| 9. The Final Text of the Constitution..... | » 98 |
| Conclusion | » 99 |

CHAPTER TWO

“SELF-COMMUNICATION OF GOD” AS THE KEY PARADIGM
IN DEI VERBUM AND IN THE DOCUMENTS OF VATICAN II

| | |
|--|-------|
| Introduction | » 103 |
| I. REVELATION IN DEI VERBUM | » 105 |
| 1. Meaning of the Term “Revelation” | » 106 |
| 1.1. Jesus the Perfect Communicator | » 110 |
| 1.2. Dei Verbum and Revelation..... | » 111 |
| 1.3. Importance of Dei Verbum in the Church’s Life | » 112 |
| 2. The Central Theme of Dei Verbum : God’s Self-Communication | » 114 |
| 2.1. The Meaning of God’s Self-Communication..... | » 114 |

| | |
|---|--------------|
| 2.1.1. God, the Subject of Self-Communication | » 116 |
| 2.1.2. God, the Object of Self-Communication | » 119 |
| 2.1.3. The Nature of the Self-Communication of God | » 122 |
| 2.1.4. Christ, the Act of God's Self-Communication | » 124 |
| 2.2. Stages of the Total Self-Communication | » 126 |
| 2.2.1. God's Self Revelation Through the History of Salvation.. | » 127 |
| 2.2.2. God's Self-Revelation Through Election, Covenant and Providence | » 130 |
| 2.3. Christ, God's Self-Communication | » 131 |
| 2.3.1. Christ, the Fullness of Self-Communication | » 131 |
| 2.3.2. The Humanity of the Word of Revelation..... | » 135 |
| 2.3.3. Christ Manifests the Father..... | » 137 |
| 2.3.4. Christ, the Completion and Fulfilment | » 138 |
| 2.4. The Two Modes of the One Self-Communication of God..... | » 139 |
| 2.4.1. Self-Communication through the Word Made Flesh: The Mediator | » 140 |
| 2.4.2. Self-Communication in the Spirit: The Subjective Reality of Revelation | » 142 |
| 3. Christ, the Definitive Key to Understand God's Total Self-Communication | » 145 |
| 3.1. The Definitive Character of Christian Dispensation | » 146 |
| 3.2. Christological Concentration | » 146 |
| | |
| II. SELF-COMMUNICATION OF GOD IN OTHER DOCUMENTS OF VATICAN COUNCIL II..... | » 150 |
| 1. Mystery of Christ and Mystery of Man | » 151 |
| 2. The Homo religiosus and Self-Communication of God | » 155 |
| 2.1. The Problem of Salvation | » 157 |
| 2.2. The Mediation of the Religions and the Action of the Spirit..... | » 158 |
| 3. Self-Communication of God as the Key to Understand the Church's Nature | » 161 |
| 4. God's Self-Communication for Communion and Union foretasted in Liturgy | » 164 |
| 5. The Church's Task to Communicate God's Self-Communication..... | » 168 |
| 6. The Word of God All-Encompassing | » 170 |
| Conclusion | » 172 |

CHAPTER THREE

KARL BARTH AND KARL RAHNER AS THE MAIN PROTAGONISTS OF REVELATION AS "SELF-COMMUNICATION OF GOD"

| | |
|--|--------------|
| Introduction | » 177 |
| I. KARL BARTH ON REVELATION AS "SELF-REVELATION OF GOD" | » 179 |
| 1. Biographical Note | » 179 |
| 2. Evolution of the Concept "Self-Revelation of God"..... | » 184 |
| 2.1. From Dialectics to Analogy..... | » 184 |
| 2.2. Analogy of Faith | » 189 |

| | |
|--|-------|
| 3. Jesus Christ, the Word of God, as the Key Paradigm of God's Self-Revelation | » 191 |
| 3.1. God Speaks in Jesus | » 193 |
| 3.2. God as Speaking Person | » 195 |
| 3.3. Jesus Christ as 'God with Us' and 'God for Us' | » 197 |
| 4. Natural Knowledge of God and Revelation | » 200 |
| 5. Self-Revelation as the Act of the Revealing God | » 202 |
| 5.1. Self-Revelation as God's Self-Interpretation | » 203 |
| 5.2. God Reveals Himself as the Lord | » 203 |
| 5.3. Lordship as Freedom | » 205 |
| 6. The Doctrine of the Trinity Based on the Lordship of God | » 207 |
| 6.1. God's Lordship as Self-Unveiling of God Through the Form | » 208 |
| 6.2. God's Lordship as the Freedom of His Being in Veiling | » 209 |
| 6.3. God's Lordship in the Impartation of Revelation | » 209 |
| 7. The Self-Relatedness of God's Being | » 211 |
| 7.1. The Three Modes of the Being of God | » 211 |
| 7.2. The Concreteness of God's Being: Perichoresis and Appropriation | » 214 |
| 7.3. Jesus the Man as Imago Dei | » 217 |
| 8. The Revealedness of the Self-Revelation of God | » 218 |
| 8.1. Revelation Received in Faith and Obedience..... | » 218 |
| 8.2. God's-Being-as-Object in the Sacrament of Jesus' Humanity | » 220 |
| 8.3. The Holy Spirit as the Subjective Reality of Revelation in Human Beings | » 221 |
| 9. Evaluation of Barth's Contribution on the "Self-Revelation of God" | » 223 |
| | |
| II. KARL RAHNER ON REVELATION AS "SELF-COMMUNICATION OF GOD" .. | » 226 |
| 1. Biographical Sketch | » 227 |
| 2. Human Nature as Spirit Before the Mystery of God | » 232 |
| 2.1. Relationship Between Nature and Grace..... | » 233 |
| 2.2. Human Being as Capax Dei | » 235 |
| 2.2.1. The Hypothesis of 'Pure Nature' | » 236 |
| 2.2.2. Karl Rahner's Contribution to Understand 'Pure Nature' | » 238 |
| 3. Human Nature, Spirit in the World, as Potentia oboedientialis | » 240 |
| 3.1. The Human Being as Subject and Person with Knowledge | » 241 |
| 3.1.1. Human Capacity as Openness to Absolute Spirit: Potentia oboedientialis | » 242 |
| 3.1.2. Orientation Toward the Totality of Being: Transcendental Experience | » 244 |
| 3.1.3. The Self-Presence of the Subject in Knowledge | » 244 |
| 3.1.4. Agent Intellect as Anticipation ("Vorgriff")..... | » 247 |
| 3.2. The Human Spirit's Self-Presence in Freedom | » 249 |
| 3.2.1. Transcendental Experience of Freedom in Concrete | » 249 |
| 3.2.2. Finite Freedom as Listener of the Word | » 250 |
| 3.2.3. Absolute Affirmation of the Contingent and Co-Performance | » 251 |
| 3.3. Grace as 'Supernatural Existential' Communicated..... | » 252 |

| | |
|---|-------|
| 3.3.1. ‘Supernatural Existential’ as Unmerited, God’s Self-Gift .. | » 253 |
| 3.3.2. Grace as the Self-Communication of God to the Created Spirit | » 255 |
| 3.3.3. God’s Mediated Immediacy in Uncreated Grace | » 256 |
| 3.3.3.1. Quasi-Formal Causality and Uncreated Grace | » 257 |
| 3.3.3.2. God’s Threefold Self-Communication in Grace | » 258 |
| 3.3.3.3. God’s Self-Communication in Grace as an Ontological Statement | » 259 |
| 4. God Before Human Beings | » 260 |
| 4.1. ‘Natural’ Knowledge of God..... | » 260 |
| 4.1.1. Mystery as the Horizon, Term of Knowledge and Ground of Freedom..... | » 260 |
| 4.1.2. Holy Mystery as Hidden, Unknown and Free..... | » 260 |
| 4.2. Incarnation as the Definitive Self-Communication of God | » 264 |
| 4.2.1. ‘Word of God’ Became Man | » 265 |
| 4.2.2. Word of God Became ‘Man’ | » 265 |
| 4.2.3. The ‘Becoming’ of the Immutable God..... | » 266 |
| 5. Relation Between Self-Communication in Incarnation, Grace and Creation | » 267 |
| 6. The Trinity as the Holy Mystery of Salvation | » 268 |
| 6.1. The Triune God as the Mystery of Self-Communication for Salvation | » 268 |
| 6.2. The Identity of the Economic and the Immanent Trinity | » 269 |
| 7. A Brief Reflection on God’s Self-Communication | » 272 |
| 8. Evaluation of Rahner’s Contribution on the “Self-Communication of God” | » 277 |
| Conclusion | » 280 |

PART TWO
REVELATION AS “SELF-COMMUNICATION OF GOD”
VIEWED FROM THE PERSPECTIVE OF THE REVELATION OF GOD’S NAME AND THEOLOGY OF LOVE

| | |
|--|--------------|
| CHAPTER FOUR | |
| THE SELF-COMMUNICATION IN THE REVELATION OF GOD’S NAME IN EXODUS 3: 14 | |
| | » 287 |
| Introduction | » 287 |
| 1. The Problematic of the Name of God | » 288 |
| 2. Naming and Self-Communication of the Name | » 290 |
| 2.1. Significance of Naming in the Semitic and Greek World-View .. | » 291 |
| 2.1.1. Name in the Semitic World-View | » 291 |
| 2.1.2. Name According to the Greek World-View..... | » 292 |
| 3. The Background of the Self-Communication of the Divine Name | » 294 |
| 3.1. The Various Names of God..... | » 294 |
| 3.2. Name and God’s Inner Essence..... | » 295 |

| | |
|--|-------|
| 4. The Context of the Self-Communication of God's Name | » 297 |
| 4.1. The Call of Moses and His Mission | » 298 |
| 4.1.1. The Name YHWH as a Means of Arousing Confidence in the Mission | » 299 |
| 4.1.2. Moses' Mission for a Transformation of the People | » 301 |
| 4.2. The Place of God's Revelation of His Personal Name..... | » 303 |
| 4.3. The Angel of the Lord in the Burning Bush | » 304 |
| 4.4. The Divine Names: YHWH and Elohim and El Shadday | » 306 |
| 4.4.1. El Shadday, the God of the Fathers..... | » 309 |
| 4.4.1.1. The Patriarchs and YHWH | » 310 |
| 4.4.1.2. The Origin of the Name YHWH | » 311 |
| 4.4.2. The Etymology and Vocalization of the Personal Name: YHWH | » 312 |
| 4.4.3. Meaning of the Name YHWH | » 313 |
| 4.4.3.1. The Mysterious Name: YHWH | » 314 |
| 4.4.3.2. 'Shem' as Icon of God | » 316 |
| 4.4.3.3. Name as Active and Distinct Hypostasis | » 316 |
| 4.4.3.4. Personification of the Name in the Angel..... | » 317 |
| 5. The Self-Communication of the Divine Name: 'ehyeh 'asher 'ehyeh | » 319 |
| 5.1. Translations of 'ehyeh 'asher 'ehyeh | » 319 |
| 5.2. The Interpretations of 'ehyeh 'asher 'ehyeh | » 321 |
| 5.2.1. The Rabbinic Interpretations | » 321 |
| 5.2.2. The Ontological Interpretation..... | » 325 |
| 5.3. Dynamic Interrelation and Knowledge of God | » 332 |
| 5.4. Knowledge of God Through the Attributes..... | » 334 |
| 6. Name and the Inner Reality of God..... | » 336 |
| 6.1. The Figure of YHWH | » 336 |
| 6.2. No Graven Images | » 337 |
| 6.2.1. Cult of Images Forbidden | » 339 |
| 6.2.2. Idols versus Icons | » 339 |
| 6.2.3. No Icons of Cosmic Nature | » 340 |
| 6.2.4. Polytheism as Idolatry..... | » 340 |
| 6.2.5. Idolatry and Future Generations | » 341 |
| 6.2.6. Use of Anthropomorphism | » 342 |
| Conclusion | » 343 |

CHAPTER FIVE

THE HERMENEUTIC OF "SELF-COMMUNICATION OF GOD" AS GOD'S OFFER OF LOVE

| | |
|---|-------|
| Introduction | » 349 |
| 1. Towards a Renewed Notion of Revelation as God's Self-Communication of Love | » 351 |
| 2. Methodological Indications for a New Hermeneutic of Self-Communication of God | » 355 |

| | |
|---|-------|
| 3. The Problematic of Love in the Existential Human Situation..... | » 358 |
| 3.1. The Response of Karl Barth and Karl Rahner to the Human Predicament | » 360 |
| 3.2. Towards a Trinitarian Ontology of Love | » 362 |
| 4. The Notions of ‘Person’ and ‘Love’ | » 366 |
| 4.1. Meaning of the Term ‘Person’ | » 367 |
| 4.1.1. Person as Face and Function | » 367 |
| 4.1.2. Person and Being | » 368 |
| 4.1.3. Being-in-Relation as Receptivity | » 371 |
| 4.2. The Notion of Love | » 372 |
| 4.2.1. Description of Love | » 373 |
| 4.2.2. Love is Selective | » 373 |
| 4.2.3. Love as the Highest Goal | » 374 |
| 4.2.4. The Need of Divine Love to Bring Human Life to Fuller Meaning..... | » 375 |
| 4.2.5. Uniqueness of God’s Love Manifested in Christ | » 376 |
| 5. Crucified/Abandoned Jesus, the Image of God’s Self-Emptying Triune Love | » 376 |
| 5.1. The Crucified Jesus as the Image of the Invisible God | » 377 |
| 5.2. Jesus Abandoned and Abandoning as the Vestige of the Trinity | » 380 |
| 5.3. The Mysterious Triune Love Manifested in the Forgiveness for Enemies..... | » 383 |
| 5.4. The Saving God as the Hidden Trinitarian God | » 384 |
| 5.5. Abandonment and Nuptial Union of Christ and the Church..... | » 386 |
| 6. The Trinitarian God in God’s Self as Love | » 387 |
| 6.1. Creation as the Other for God’s Self-Relatedness | » 388 |
| 6.2. Trinitarian Ontology: God One and Three | » 391 |
| 6.2.1. The Thrust of Trinitarian Ontology | » 391 |
| 6.2.2. The Being of God and Freedom | » 392 |
| 6.2.2.1. Human Beginning as the Image of Trinitarian ‘Beginning’ | » 392 |
| 6.2.2.2. God as Eternal Wonder | » 396 |
| 6.2.2.3. Love: Event of Freedom | » 397 |
| 7. God’s Self-Communication as God Pouring out Triune Love | » 398 |
| 7.1. God’s Self-Communication as Grace of the Lord in the Church | » 399 |
| 7.2. Self-Communication as Love of God the Father | » 405 |
| 7.3. Self-Communication as the Fellowship of the Holy Spirit..... | » 407 |
| 7.4. Human Response to God’s Offer of Triune Love | » 409 |
| 8. Christianity and Other Religions | » 410 |
| 8.1. Christ as One the Mediator Contains All Mediations | » 410 |
| 8.2. The Church’s Consciousness on the Crossroads of Religions | » 413 |
| 8.3. Uniqueness and Universality of Christian Faith vis-à-vis Other Faiths | » 414 |
| 9. God’s Eschatological and Definitive Self-Communication | » 419 |
| Conclusion | » 422 |
| GENERAL CONCLUSION | » 425 |

| | |
|--|-------|
| APPENDIX | |
| The Members and Consultors of the Theological Commission..... | » 435 |
| BIBLIOGRAPHY | » 439 |
| 1. Conciliar Documents | » 439 |
| 2. Ante-Preparatory and Preparatory Documents of the Council | » 439 |
| 3. The Papal Documents..... | » 441 |
| 4. Curial Documents | » 442 |
| 5. Studies on the Council | » 443 |
| 6. Books | » 448 |
| 7. Articles | » 458 |